том. Пишући раније у овом Гласнику на тему заставе Босне и Херцеговине рекли смо, чини се, све што са имало речи. Објављивањем ових до сада непубликованих скица хтели смо да од заборава спасемо још један, мада не много значајан, детаљ који се односи на нашу новију вексилолошку историју. Не може да скоди!

In the days when competition for flag of Bosnia and Herzegovina was on, the state in search of a flag being described as composite, made of two entities (Bosniak-Croat Federation and Republic of Srpska), our Society was approached by representatives of Republic of Srpska, asking for advice and comments. At that time, situation appeared rather clear:

a/ The flag was supposed not to express any tradition, historical heritage, national or any other identity;

b/ The flag was not supposed to express any notion of a sovereignty whatsoever, be it that of a nation, history, or a right based upon a granted or conquered freedom;

c/ Bosniak/Croatian Federation at that time took firm stand that the flag should be simple addition of separate sovereignties, while position of Republic of Srpska was that the flag should express fact that the common state was a loose confederation of individual entities. These two stands were very compatible, and therefore stood in sharp discord with the claim of "International Community" that unitary state and denial of entities and nations, their tradition, beliefs and rights, was beyond dispute; d/ Bosniak/Croatian entity adopted as their vexillological expression colours green, white and red, and a combination of two "national" shields with a paraphrase of European Union symbol; Republic of Srpska opted for Serbian national tricolour.

Having in mind such situation, The Society advised Republic of Srpska of several possible vexillological interpretations, abstaining from any direct advice, and stressing that within this
